Christians

Christians of enjoying these privileges?

A Inordinate c passions, as fear, anger, selfe-love, pride, love of pleasures, cares of the world, earthly incumbrances, and inconstancy in good duties, temptations also to distrust, doe keep under many.

Q What may be a further help?

A It is good to e examine our hearts, and use the advice of others; but we must know withall, the groaning g after, and labouring to rest our wearied soule upon the promises of grace, being never satisfied untill our doubtfulnesse be removed, will bring a good end, e Psal. 4, 4. f 1 Thes. 5. 14. g Mat. 11. 28.

Q What priviledges doe the godly enjoy aſſoone as this life is ended?

A Their glory then begins: for their bodies remaine p in the grave as in a bed of ſpices, and their ſouls q being perfectly freed from ſinne, are received into heaven, beholding r God and Chriſt immediately, p 1 Theſ. 4. 15. q Revel. 14. 13. r Matth. 5. 8. 1 Cor. 13. 12.

Q Seeing many of Gods Elect people, and wicked men are rotted in the earth, how can they be judged?

Q What

Q What are we to believe concerning those who shall be found alive at the comming of Christ?
